Mochitsuki: Japanese Rice Cake Making

Sunday 20th August 11:40am, 12:10pm & 12:40pm

Come along and see how mochi (Japanese rice cakes) are made at the Japanese Cultural Day in Mt Coot-tha's Botanic Gardens. The Japanese Club of Brisbane presents this energetic process of pounding rice with a giant hammer, which is exciting and a little dangerous...

Kamishibai and Kite Making

Sunday 20th August 10:20am, 11:05am, 11:50am
12:55pm, 1:40pm & 2:25pm

Enjoy a Kamishibai story about 'Tom' the shorebird followed by a kite-making activity at the Bandstand, Mt Coot-tha Botanic Gardens. Kamishibai is a style of Japanese storytelling for children.

Follow 'Tom' the shorebird as he flies from Siberia to Japan and then Brisbane's Boondall Wetlands, then have fun making a simple shorebird kite. Learn about the amazing lives of migratory shorebirds and their epic journeys between Asia and Moreton Bay.

Bonsai Demonstration

Sunday 20th August 10:00am – 3:00pm

Head over to Bonsai House at the Mt Coot-tha Botanic Gardens to experience the Bonsai Demonstrations presented by BIMER & The Bonsai Society of Qld Inc.

Kitchen in the Garden

Sunday 20th August 10:30am, 12:00pm, 1:00pm

Learn how to make sushi at the Mt Coot-tha Botanic Gardens this weekend. The Botanic Gardens is holding sushi making workshops during the Japanese Cultural Day on Sunday. Head on down to the Demonstration Garden to check it out.
