

Griffith Asia Institute Webinar

Join Professor Akio Takahara of The University of Tokyo this Thursday evening for a free webinar co-hosted by the Griffith Asia Institute and The Australian Institute of International Affairs. Professor Takahara will be speaking on the Strategic Dynamics of the Indo-Pacific in the Post-COVID-19 World, a particularly timely subject after Australian Prime Minister Scott Morrison's recent visit to Tokyo and the historic announcement of an in-principle defence agreement between Australia and Japan.

Held Thursday, 26 November 2020 at 5:30-6:30pm Queensland time (6:30 - 7:30pm ADST).

This event is free but registrations are essential. To find out more and sign up for the event, visit:
