

CONSULATE UPDATES

Autumn has arrived here in Brisbane, although the weather is still warm and humid! We hope you are all keeping cool.

We were delighted to host several events in February, including our annual Emperor's Birthday reception and a piano recital with Ms Kato Naoko. It is also fantastic to see more collaboration between universities and visits to Australia by students in a wide range of sectors.

This month we are proud to announce a range of fantastic opportunities to connect with Japan online and in-person in the months ahead. We hope you will enjoy the range of events and activities, and stay tuned for even more exciting news this year!

2024 Emperor's Birthday Reception

Consul-General Gomakubo hosted this year's Emperor's Birthday Reception at his Official Residence on 22 February.

The evening was a chance to celebrate all things Japanese and collaborate with Japanese and Australian companies to promote cutting edge technology, delicious food and beverages, tourism, trade, and Expo 2025 Osaka, Kansai, Japan. Thank you to all our friends of Japan for joining us!

Piano Recital with Ms KATO Naoko

The Consulate-General of Japan hosted a salon concert with distinguished Japanese pianist Ms KATO Naoko. We were honoured to have Ms KATO join us all the way from Japan for this special performance. Bravo!

Visit by Kobe University

Consulate staff met with medical students from Kobe University, who are visiting Queensland as part of an agreement with The University of Queensland. Under this agreement, Kobe University students will undertake clinical practice experience through UQ, and UQ students will be able to gain similar experience in Kobe. What a great opportunity!
