Iwasaki Sangyo Prize Ceremony

On 26 November, Acting Consul-General HANAI Ikuko had the pleasure of attending an award ceremony for the 2024 Iwasaki Sangyo Prize. The prize provides Year 12 students in Queensland with the invaluable opportunity to immerse themselves in Japanese language and culture by spending four weeks in Japan. We would like to congratulate them and wish them all the best for the future!

Visiting Corporate Travel Mission

It was a delight for former Consul-General Gomakubo to co-host a reception on November 8 with Qantas and Brisbane Airport to welcome a Japanese delegation visiting as part of a corporate travel management mission. As two-way travel between Japan and Queensland continues to strengthen, the reception provided a wonderful opportunity for members of the delegation to network with representatives from both Japanese and Australian companies, and state and local government officials, and bolster our bilateral economic ties.
